EFOMP calendar terms and conditions

Who can send a photograph to be considered for publishing in the EFOMP calendar?

Medical physicists from EFOMP NMOs, honorary members or medical physicists from EFOMP Company members are eligible to send their photos. Members of the EFOMP board and Communications and Publications Committee may send their photos if needed.

Technical specifications for submitted photographs

One photograph per person is permitted. The photograph must be submitted as a high-resolution file. The photograph must not contain violence, profanity, sex or direct attacks on individuals or organizations. The photograph must not be used for marketing of any product. Any entries deemed offensive or inappropriate will be immediately disqualified.

The photograph must be an original creation - no copyrighted images may be used.

The photograph must be accompanied by a legend/description, a head-and-shoulders photograph of the author, short biography (up to 50 words in an “EMP News” style), and signed authorization (release form) for publication of the photo.

The sender warrants that the submitted photograph does not violate the rights of a third party or any copyright. EFOMP is not responsible for intellectual property violations that might have resulted through the submission of photographs.

The photograph and accompanying documents must be sent to pubcommittee@efomp.org.

Judging and notification of selected photographers

After the collection period closes, photographs will be judged on adherence to the composition, overall presentation, and suitability for the EFOMP calendar. EFOMP appoints the following jury to judge the entries:

- Jaroslav Ptáček (jury president),
- chair of the Communications and Publications Committee,
- members of the Communications and Publications Committee.

The final decision will be made based on discussion between members of the jury. The jury’s decision is final.

Deadline

The deadline for sending photographs to be part of the calendar for the upcoming year is 31st October.

Rights and ownership

By submitting their photographs to EFOMP, participants agree to grant EFOMP free of charge the right to use the photograph, as per the release form.

EFOMP agrees to mention the full name of the chosen contestant and (where appropriate) his/her personal photograph and their short biography.

General

EFOMP reserves the right to modify or cancel the contest or any of the arrangements, schedules, plans or other items directly or indirectly related to the EFOMP calendar, at any time and for any reason it deems necessary.

The personal information provided to EFOMP by the participants shall only be used for the purposes of the EFOMP calendar. All senders are entitled to access, cancel, oppose and rectify the details about their personal data (such as names, addresses, etc.) contained in the file by sending their request by email to pubcommittee@efomp.org.

Senders of photographs, including being selected to have photograph(s) considered for inclusion in the EFOMP Calendar, in no manner constitutes an endorsement or support by EFOMP of the senders' views or aims or of any products or services. Senders shall not advertise or otherwise claim to have obtained any such endorsement or support. The EFOMP name and logo are the property of EFOMP and should not be used in any manner whatsoever without the prior consent of EFOMP. EFOMP must approve in writing any statement, advertisement, press release or similar communication in any media, relating to senders' participation in the EFOMP calendar.
